After ten years of playing the Black Widow character, Scarlett Johansson finally has a solo movie. As you found out earlier, the Black Widow first appeared in Iron Man 2 in 2010.

Yes, for better or worse though, Black Widow is dead, at least as dead as anyone ever really is in a comic book universe. However, death isn't standing in the way of Natasha (Scarlett Johansson) starring in her own film, finally, after many years of fans asking for one. Lots of Black Widow devotees felt slighted when newcomer Captain Marvel was the first female Marvel Cinematic Universe (MCU) hero to get her own movie, but better late than never, as Black Widow - the movie - is here.

Black Widow Cast

Scarlett Johansson AKA Black Widow AKA Natasha Romanoff, Florence Pugh AKA Yelena Belova, Rachel Weisz AKA Melina Vostokoff, David Harbour AKA Red Guardian, the main villain Taskmaster, and O-T Fagbenle AKA Mason

As you can tell, Scarlett Johansson's primary role in recent years has been the superhero called the Black Widow. It seems to be working since her net worth is estimated at $165 million, raking in $56 million in 2019 alone. With the movie Black Widow, she will probably exceed that amount in 2021.

And here I thought a Black Widow was a woman who kills multiple husbands or lovers.
